

Biography

Speaker: Humphrey Mwangi

Position: Senior Underwriting Officer

Company: African Trade Insurance Agency – ATI

Country: Kenya

A finance and credit risk professional, Humphrey Mwangi joined ATI in 2006 as Underwriter responsible for deal sourcing and business development. He has been the Acting Chief Underwriting Officer for ATI for the last one year, during which time he oversaw the business generation and risk assessment functions at Africa's only multilateral ECA.

Prior to ATI, Humphrey worked with the Standard Bank in its Nairobi and Johannesburg offices, where he rose to the level of Credit Manager, Africa at the continent's largest bank by assets. In this position he handled projects in 17 African countries, with main responsibility for due diligence and structuring of large lending transactions.

During his time in banking and ECA financing, Humphrey has been involved in some of Africa's most prominent Corporate and Project Finance deals.

A Kenyan national, he holds an MBA in Finance from Boston University and a B. Com Accounting degree from Kenyatta University.
